HIGHBRIDGE FALLS EARLY

AMERICAN CANDIDATE FAILS TO FINISH IN GRAND NATIONAL STEEPLECHASE.

Only Three of Twenty-two Starters Complete the Trying Course at Aintree and Covertcoat Is Returned the Winner.

London, Eng., April 4.—Twenty-two horses started in the Liverpool Grand National Steeplechase over the Aintree course today, but accidents were so frequent that only three finished. Of these Sir C. Assneton Smith's six-year-old bay horse Covertecat, by Hackler—Chinamon, 160 pounds, was first, Tyrwhitt Drake's six-year-old brown gelding Irish Mail, by King's Messenger—Betsy Shannon, 158 pounds, second, and C. Wildenburg's ten-year-old bay gelding Carsey, by Kersey—Fiction, 168 pounds, third. The American candidate. Highbridge, fell over a fence early in the race. In the betting Covertecat, Carsey and Highbridge were equal at 100 to 9 against each, while it was 25 to 1 against Irish Mail.

The distance of the race is about four miles and 856 yards. This means practically twice over the course. The start is made just beyond the paddock, which is at the right of the grandstand as one sits facing the track. There are sixteen obstacles in the course, fourteen of which are taken twice, causing the horses, that is those finishing, to jump thirty times. The first jump is called "Fans Fence." It is a difficult, natural quick set hedge trimmed down to five feet high, but it is fully four feet thick, and must be "cleared," not brushed, and it was named after a wonderful steeplechase mare, but, although a grand fencer on other courses, always going down at the first National fence. The next obstacle is a natural thorn fence, much more casy, and the third is an nasty one with a six-foot wide ditch on the take-off side. Then follows a preity stiff post and rails, five feet high, and the fifth jump is an ordinary English thorn hedge.

The sixth is "Becher's Brook." so named after a captain Becher, who was killed there. It is a natural watercourse, eight feet wide, with fairly steep banks., with a stiff four feet high fence. Over this the horses begin to turn. The next obstacle is a hedge, having a rail fence thirty inches in height standing three feet from its from base. The eighth fence is a broad, thick hedge, with a deep di

The Bickerstaffe Stakes of 600 sovereigns, for three-year-olds, at a mile, was won by the Duke of Devonshire's bay filly Taslett, by William the third -Burgonet, with T. Baring's chestnut colt Fitz James, by Grey Leg—Ena, second, and P. Nelke's brown colt Laudes, by Desmond—Lauda, third.

The Sefton Park Plate of 200 sovereigns, for two-year-olds, at five-eighths of a mile, was won by T. Baring's gray colt Grey Hall, by Grev Leg—Diamond Hall, R. Sherwood's bay colt by Simon Square—Lady Tertius finishing second, and P. F. Heybourn's bay filly by General Symons—Shuleagra third.

DECAGONE WINS THE BROCKLESBY STAKES.

The Brocklesby Stakes, for two-year-olds, at five-eighths of a mile, was run at Lincoln April 2 and was won by Lionel Robinson's chestnut filly Decagone, by Martagon—Desca, with J. G. Elsey's brown cott Clap Gate, by Long Tom—Amusement, second, and Lord Rosebery's bay filly, Tanaquil, by Cicero—Turpitude, third. The Brocklesby is annually the first English stake race of considerable value for two-year-olds, usually netting the winner about $3,500 and some of its contestants usually train on into youngsters of subsequent good class. One of its winners, Donovan, won the Epsom Derby of English turf history, having won a total of $275,872 and being second only to Isinglass in that respect.

The Liverpool Spring Cup of $5,000, for three-year-olds and over, at a mile and three-eighths, was run at Liverpool April 3 and was won by E. Hutton's four-year-old brown colt Scots Saint, by St. Aldan—Fair Jean, 113 pounds. Sir E. Cassel's four-year-old chestnut colt Wilfrid, by William the Third—Sonature, finished second, and Lord Ellesmer's four-year-old bay colt Kempnough, by King's Courier—Koohaan, was third.

MORE THAN 300 HORSES AT LOUISVILLE. Charleston Shipments Will Shortly Swell Numbers to 400 or So-Kentucky Gossip.

Louisville, Ky., April 4.—There have been many seasons in recent years when even on the eve of the opening of the racing season at the local track there were not as many horses housed here as are now occupying the stables at Churchill Downs and Douglas Park.

Many, too, are stars of the first water, including not only the most promising youngsters, but the kings and queens of the turf of an older age. There was never a season when so many valuable and promising two-year-olds were trained here as is the case this spring. Some of the stables have youngsters whose value runs far into the thousands and there are in fact horses at both the local tracks that money cannot buy. The prospects for the spring racing season at Churchill bowns and Douglas Park could not be brighter. Interest is already intense in the outcome of the Kentucky Berby at Churchill Bowns and the $10,009 Kentucky Handicap at Douglas Park. May 16, Derby day, is sure to bring a record-breaking crowd of visitors here and the racing season which then begins will undoubtedly keep the city full of visitors until spring and summer racing ends here at Douglas Park on June 7.

Much discussion is going on among horsemen as Bowns and the $10,000 Kentucky Handicap at Douglas Fark. May 10, Derby day, is sure to bring a record-breaking crowd of visitors here and the racing season which then begins will undoubtedry keep the city full of visitors until spring and summer racing ends here at Douglas Park on June 7.

Much discussion is going on among horsemen as to the merits of the Kennucky Oaks candidates in training in Kentucky as compared with the Texasbred filly, Pan Zareta, which is expected to reach Lexington as soon as the Indiana water subsides, the car she was in having been marooned at Washington, Ind. The Kentucky favorites regarded as most likely to take Pan Zareta's, mail be well high as interesting a speculative race as the Kentucky Derby.

Indications now are that Hawthorn will be the most popular local candidate the Kentucky Derby has ever known. Every visitor to the Downs visits his stall and no one leaves the track until they have seen the brown gelding take his exercise. He is the most closely watched horse ever trained at this track and his popularity is even greater at the present time than was Proctor Knort's in the long ago. To the local racing fraternity he is the Ten Broeck of 1913.

In spite of the prestige of Hawthorn, trainers of other candidates here for the big race are going along with their charges just as if Mr. C. F. Busche meyer's gelding was not entered for the Derby this spring. Lew Marlon is fitting Prince Hermis and Sam Hirsch for the big event, and Shelby West thinks Jimmie Gill has speed and courage enough to warrant training for such a contest, Leochares, in J. W. Schorr's stable at Douglas Park, is another three-year-old which his trainer regards as a Derby possibility. All over the country local turfmen are hearing this spring of three-year-olds that are being prepared for this great race, and before leaving on his tip to France Manager Winn hazarded the opinion that no less than twelve starters would compose the Derby field.

Louisville, Ky., April 3.—(Delayed in transmission.) The racing strings of A. B. Spreckles of California, and Earl Linnell, who has in charge the horses owned by J. Hochrein, arrived today at Churchill Downs from Juarež. The Spreckels collection consists of the three-year-old, Amity, and six two-year-olds, including Manson, Galar, Harbard and Hyki. In the Linnell string are several useful racers, including Ymir, and the two-year-old winner Gasple. With these horses also came the Kentucky Berby candidate, Weyanoke, owned by T. Carroll, Linnell is the trainer who attends to the making of the engagements of Jockey Gross, who is expected here from California within the next fortuight.

of the engagements of jockey Gross, who is expected here from California within the next fortnight.

Most of the trials at the local tracks today were by horses in the stable of J. R. Wainwright. The two-year-old filly, Ivan Gardner and the colt High Class went a half together in '52%. Loveland, another two-year-old in this string, went the same distance in '54. All Red was breezed four furlongs in '52%. The only other work worth recording at Churchill Downs or Douglas Park was that of Old Rosebud, which galloped a quarter in '25 and a maiden two-year-old in the stable of Al Steele, which worked five furlongs in 1:33%. Secretary Lyman H. Davis is receiving congratulations over the arrival at his home of a fineboy, the third lad in the Davis household. An inventory of the stables at Douglas Park shows at present there are ninety-three horses quartered there, divided as follows: J. W. Schorr, 19; J. B. Respess, 25; William Gerst, 22; Weber & Ward, S. Otto Stifel, 10; Sfanley H. Kunz, 6; C. Cochel, 3; Frank Smith, 2; R. MeMillan, 6; J. Shay and J. Brown, 1. At Churchill Downs there are 224 horses, making a total of 317 horses at the two tracks. It is expected that this number will be swelled to 400 or more at once by arrivals from Charleston.

be swelled to 400 or more at once by arrivals from Charleston.

Miller Henderson, of Henderson & Hogan, has arrived here. He has been in California for about a year, seeking a restoration of his health and he thinks he has entirely recovered. He will gain recreation by taking in the Kentneky races this spring and summer, and at the same time he will be on the lookout for promising material for another racing stable. His racing partner, Frank G. Hogan, expects to join him here in time to see the Kentley to Join him here in time to see the Kentley to Join him here in time to see the Kentley to Join him here in time to see the Kentley Berby run at the Downs on May 10.

Limpet, which has been wintered here by trainer John Ward for Adair & Baker, was taken from Douglas Park today to Churchill Downs by Jockey R. Goose and turned over to Adair & Baker.

Jack Campbell, entry clerk at Douglas Park and Latonia, has arrived from Charleston and will remain until the local meetings here are over. He reports that Frank Bruen stopped over at Latonia en route here from Charleston and that both he and Manager John Hachmeister will shortly be at Douglas Park to open up the track office for preliminary work in connection with the spring meeting beginning there May 26.

News has reached the local tracks that Nash Cash, one of N. B. Davis' Kentucky Derby caudidates, broke down at Charleston. It is said that the son of Nasturtium has no chance to race again until fall.

broke down at Charleston. It is said that the son of Nasturtium has no chance to race again until fall.

W. C. Clancy will take his entire stable, now quartered at Churchill Downs, to Lexington in time to race the eight horses he is training during the coming spring meeting there, which begins on April 26. He has only one two-year-old in his string, the Hastings filly Hartena, and she is not promising being much undersized. His three-year-olds are Garter and Kenneth and, while his older horses include Cosgrove, Genmell, Fern L. and Little Jane. Clancy has a shifty lot of horses, and will no doubt make his trip to Kentucky profitable. He is rated as one of the most skilful of far-western trainers. His last trip to Louisville was in .1889, when he came to the Kentucky track with Theodoro Winters' unbeaten crack, El Rio Rey. The immortal Proctor Knott was then a three-year-old and the grandstand was on the opposite side of the track as compared with where it is located today.

A. B. Hancock has instructed W. C. Clancy to ship Follie Levy to Ellersile Farm in Virginia, as soon as possible. Clancy will send the great mare to her future home as soon as he is assured that the high water will not affect her safety in transportation. She will be mated with one of the Ellersile stallions as soon as she reaches Virginia.

The horses of G. W. J. Bissell, C. D. Chenault, E. W. Moore, J. H. Nichols, W. T. Woodard and Lee Christy have reached Lexington from Charleston.

FOUNDATION'S DERBY STOCK GOES UP. C. J. McKenna's Candidate Works Mile in 1:39% in Sensational Fashion at Lexington.

Lexington, Ky., April 2 (delayed in transmission).—C. J. McKenna's Kentucky Derby candidate, Foundation, created a sensation among horsemen this morning by working a mile in 1:39½ over the Kentucky Association's course. Jockey Hicks was in the saddle and kept a good steady hold on his mount. Will McDaniel, who is preparing Foundation for his Kentucky Derby engagement, was vigorously signaling to Hicks to pull up after seven-eighths had been covered.

with McDaniel, who is preparing Foundation for his Kentucky Derby engagement, was vigorously signalling to Hicks to pull up after seven-eighths had been covered.

J. O. Keene, trainer of J. N. Camden's Kentucky Derby candidate, Helios, "Bub" May, J. S. Hawkins, T. C. McDowell and others who were watching the work-out were generally of the opinion that Foundation would have made the circuit of the track in 1:38 had his rider permitted him to. The fractional time was: Three-quarters in 1:12%, seven-eighths in 1:394, mile in 1:394, pulled up; mile and an eighth in 1:55½, cantering at the end. When he pulled up he did not draw a long breath.

The work was considered marvelous for so early in the season, and convinced the trainers who witnessed it that Hawthorn, Helios and the other Derby favorites would have a hard nut to crack in beating this fellow. As soon as the work was ended turf sharps and bettors made a bee line for town to try to get a bet in the winter book at Louisville. A turfman who a few days ago bet $50 on Foundation at 30 to 1 called up Louisville on the 'phone and tried to get on $100 at 25 to 1, which was the quoted price this morning, but was told that 15 to 1 was the best he could get. Others who had witnessed the colt's performance having evidently beaten this bettor to the wire.

Foundation is beautifully bred, being by Nasturtium out of Meddlesome She, by Meddler, and is a strapping big, muscular fellow. Will Daniel, in whose hands he is, prepared Boundless to win the $50,000 World's Fair Derby.

King's Daughter has foaled a brown filly by Ogden. Other recent foals at T. C. McDowell's Ashland.

NEW YORK RACING ASSURED

DATES OFFICIALLY ANNOUNCED FOR RESUMP. TION OF SPORT IN THE EAST.

Racing to Be Conducted for Eighteen Days at Belmont Park, Beginning on Memorial Day-Meetings Scheduled for Jamaica and Saratoga.

New York, April 4.—The long looked for resumption of thoroughbred racing on the tracks of New York State will materialize at Belmont Park on May 30 next, when the Westchester Racing Association will begin a meeting of eighteen days duration. The sport will be conducted three days each week until the eighteen days are completed.

Then the seene of the sport will shift to the maica track of the Metropolitan Jockey Club, where a program of twelve days will be carried out. After that, Saratoga will furnish racing throughout the month of August.

All this was officially announced today and it was farther stated that autumn meetings will be considered if circumstances warrant such a course, it is thought that there will be meetings at Aqueduct an Empire City in September.

The stakes for the Belmont Park meeting will range in value from $2,000-to $2,500 added money. A fund has been arranged for by subscription, from which any possible deficit arising from the racing is to be made good. It will cover two years and will be known as the Owners', Fund. The subscribers to it include August Belmont. Harry Payne Whitney. Thomas Fortune Ryan, H. K. Knapp, John Sanford, Henry T. Oxnard, James Bulter, Joseph E. Widener, E. T. Wilson, Charles Kohler, George D. Widener, Frederick Johnson and others prominent in business and financial circles.

The stake list for the Belmont Park meeting will include the Metropolitan Handicap. Withers Stakes, Ladies' Handicap, Brookdyn Derby, Astoria Dinner Stakes, Handicap, Brookdyn Derby, Astoria Dinner Stakes. The Belmont Stakes, Empire State Steeplechase, Belmont Stakes, Independence Steeplechase, Carlton Stakes, The Belmont Stakes as originally framed for this year has been declared off and a stake of lesser value will be in the same name. In addition to the stakes enumerated above, the Jamaica and Saratoga managements will provide some attractive features.

The program so far arranged provides for fifty-five days of racing, principally in the months of June, July and August.

Needless to sa

good news and it as expected that there will be a spontaneous response from horsemen throughout the country.

There has been no racing over the big tracks of New York State since August 31, 1910. The Agnew-Perkins law holding directors of racing associations personally liable for violations of the criminal code governing bookmaking went into effect September 1, 1910, and the racing associations decided to close their gates rather than subject their directors to the risk of prosecution for the acts of others over whom they might have no control and of whose possible violation of the law they might have absolutely no knowledge. The recent decision of the Appellate Court in the Paul Shane case by whick oral betting was declared perfectly legal, opened the way for the proposed revival of a sport that in its prosperous days easily held first place in the affections of the New York public. The Shane case has gone to the Court of Appeals, the tribunal of last resort in this state, for final review and the presumption is that the announcement of today is based on the opinion of counsel for the various racing associations that it is safe to proceed with the plans that have been formulated for the revival of the sport.

James Butler bought today from "Dave" Holland 500 shares of Aqueduct track stock. The total of the shares is 4,000, of which 2,200 is in the possession of P, J. Dwyer and his Brooklyn Jockey Club associates. The stock today cannot be purchased for less than $160, as the property is so near New York that a really commany was after it to develop associates, The stock today cannot be purchased for less than $160, as the property is onear New York that a realty company was after it to develop for building purposes. The ground is worth a million dollars. It is well understood that the Gravesend track cannot much longer be prevented from being cut up by streets.

ANOTHER WHITNEY JUVENILE WINS.

Albert Simons Doing Well at Norfolk with Brookdale-bred Youngsters.

Norfolk, Va., April 4.—Stirring finishes were the order at the Jamestown Jockey Club's course this afternoon. The last four races found the leaders engaged in hard drives and winning by small margins. Secretary McLennau succeeded in bringing together well matched fields in all but one case and the task of selecting winners proved a difficult proposition for the public. Palanquin, at 1 to 3, and Cherryola, at even money, were the winning favorites.

the task of selecting winners proved a difficult proposition for the public. Palanquin, at 1 to 3, and Cherryola, at even money, were the winning favorites.

Mr. Simons saddled another winner when he sent Palanquin to the post in the second race. Palanquin again showed a high flight of speed, leading his opponents from the rise of the barrier and beating Votes, the second borse, a length and a half. Moore Johnson, a skillful young western trainer who is racing in the east this senson for the first time, divided honors with Albert Simons by saddling a couple of whiners in Coeur d'Alene and Martre, both of which were well backed by their connections, Jockey Corey was forced to ride his best to land each of them first at the finish by a short head.

The former beat the speedy Ancon, while Martre just lasted long enough to withstand Rye Straw's challenge. Double Five, which finished fourth in this race, was claimed by J. W. Hedrick for $725. Albert Simons, whose horses have been showing excellent form here this spring, took another two-year-old race with one-of Harry Payne Whitney's youngsters, when Florin, a filly by Hamburg—Flesole, won the opening dash. The race was with selling conditions and Florin was entered for $1,000. After her victory she was bid up to $1,405 by Larry Carey, agent for Frank J. Nolan. The latter is anxious to strengthen his stable with some young material and evidently will follow his practice of getting them out of selling races, as it is the cheapest way to secure useful thoroughbreds.

When jockey Obert dismounted from Armor in the fourth race, he displayed a bit of temper which cost him a week's suspension. Obert was under the impression that he had got up in time to beat Cherryola and, when he started back to the judges' stand and saw Cherryola's number up as the winner, he three his whip to the ground and swaggered around in a disgusted sort of manner. His suspension will possibly teach him better manners. Jack Kellogs bled in his race this afternoon, which accounted for his poor sho

LADIES' DAY AT MARLBORO.

Washington, D. C., April 4.—The first ladies' day of the meeting was observed at the Marlboro track this afternoon and although the weather was cloudy and threatening at the time the trip to the track was made, the fair sex turned out in large numbers. The usual six races were set for decision and they not only furnished interesting sport, but favorites and second choices were returned winners in five of them, so that it was an enjoyable afternoon for those who made the trip to the course.

There was no particular feature. In the fourth race, a selling affair for three-year-olds and over at six and a half furlongs, Semi-quaver, a strong second choice, proved best. He outbroke the others and, with clear salling all the way, was never headed, winning easily by two lengths from Haldeman. The latter ran a good race and was in close quarters for five furlongs. Lord Wells, the favorite, did not have a chance to show his real speed, as he was carried wide for the first half mile so that he had to go much further than any of the others in the race. He made up considerable ground towards the end.

Pickens, who had the mount on Galinda in the had to go much further than any of the others in the race. He made up considerable ground towards the end.

Pickens, who had the mount on Galinda in the closing dash, was fined $25 for rough riding at the start, when he crossed over in order to get the rail position and, in so doing, caused Prince Fonso and Wildweed to be knocked out of the run-ning. Wildweed was bally cut down as a result and had to be pulled up after a furlong had been run.

ning. Wildweed was hand, and had to be pulled up after a furlong had been run.

The silver loving cup that will be presented to the winner of the military race was on exhibition today and was much admired. This event, which is known as the officers' army service flat race, to be ridden by officers of the United States Army, will be the star attraction of tomorrow's card and the race received nine entries. It is expected that Major-General Wood and his staff will visit the track to witness the race.

The differences between the National Steeple-chase and Hunt Association and the Maryland that Fair and Racing Association have been settled and it is expected that there will be some good racing through the field next week. The owners of cross-country performers have heretofore been rather timid about starting.

NEW FRENCH PENALTIES FOR DOPING.

The Societe d'Encouragement have been obliged to change their rule dealing with the "doning" system. Last year they were only able to disqualify the horse to which a stimulant had been administered. By so doing they punished the owner deprived of the prize, but no penalty was provided for the trainer or 'the person proved to have given the "dope." This is now changed. The trainer is held to be responsible, and he can be punished either by the withdrawal of his license or fine of from $100 to $1.000, according to the evidence. If he is only guilty of carelessness, or of not sufficient watchfulness, it is thought that a fine will meet the case, but if 'it is proved that the drug was administered by himself, or with his knowledge, his license will be taken from him. Tubed horses are also disqualified from competing under Jockey Club Rules, it is maintained that confirmed roarers should not be encouraged, having no value for stud purposes. This decision has not found universal approval, but he law has been passed, and there it stands. No more horses with tubes in their throats will be seen ruaning on the far in France.

Al Austin did not ship any of his horses east and will confine his activities at Norfolk to the mangement of the affairs of jockey McDonald, a promising apprentice who is under contract to him. If McDonald does not make good in the east, he will take him to the Rocky Mountain circuit and give the little lad another season's experience. McDonald has nice hands, a good seat and is quick at the barrier.

The stable of Hon. John S. Hendrie and the province-bred division of George M. Hendrie's string have wintered in excellent shape at the Valley Farm, Itamilton, Ont., in charge of trainer Eddie Whyte. There are thirteen head in the lot, six of which are two-year-olds. They are an exceptionally fine-looking lot with little to choose between them, judging from appearances. The star of the string is Tankard, which was purchased along with Miccosukee and Sweet Story from Albert Simons early last summer.
